

Tanvi Sharma Wins Maiden BWF World Tour Title at Taipei Open 2026

August 8, 2026 • vajiramandravi.com

Tanvi Sharma wins maiden BWF World Tour Title after the 17-year-old Indian defeated Vietnam's Nguyen Thuy Linh to claim the women's singles crown at the Taipei Open 2026.

Tanvi Sharma's Historic Taipei Open Victory

Tanvi Sharma produced a dominant performance in the final to secure her first title on the BWF World Tour.

- Tanvi Sharma defeated sixth-seeded Nguyen Thuy Linh, ranked World No. 21, 21-16, 21-16 in 36 minutes.
- The Taipei Open is a BWF World Tour Super 300 tournament, making the victory Tanvi Sharma's maiden title at this level.
- At 17 years and 222 days, she became the youngest champion in Taipei Open history.
- She became the first Indian woman since Saina Nehwal in 2008 to win the Taipei Open women's singles title, ending India's 18-year wait.

About Tanvi Sharma

Tanvi Sharma has emerged as a promising Indian badminton player with notable achievements at the junior and senior levels.

- She has been ranked World No. 1 in junior badminton and became the first Indian to win two medals at a single edition of the World Junior Championships, taking silver in girls' singles and bronze in the mixed team event.
- She was part of the Indian team that won its maiden Asian Team Championships gold medal.
- Before the Taipei Open, she reached the 2025 US Open Super 300 final and finished runner-up at the Odisha Masters and Guwahati Masters.
- She is coached by Park Tae-sang, who has previously coached Olympic medallist P. V. Sindhu.

Source: <https://vajiramandravi.com/current-affairs/tanvi-sharma-wins-maiden-bwf-world-tour-title/>

© Vajiram & Ravi. For personal use only.