

Zangezur Corridor

June 1, 2025 • vajiramandravi.com

Zangezur Corridor Latest News

The Zangezur Corridor has become a topic of discussion following a recent meeting between Armenia's Security Council Secretary and India's National Security Advisor in New Delhi.

About Zangezur Corridor

- It is a proposed transport route designed to connect Azerbaijan's mainland with its exclave, the Nakhchivan Autonomous Republic, bypassing Armenia's Syunik Province.
- Zangezur, which is currently part of southern Armenia, has been a disputed territory since World War I.
- On Azerbaijan's side, the corridor would be integrated into the Horadiz-Agbend transport highway and railway network. On Turkey's side, it would link into the Nakhchivan-Igdir-Kars railway and highway, providing a direct land route to Anatolia and beyond.
- It carries significant economic and strategic weight for the South Caucasus and beyond.
- The project aims to enhance Azerbaijan's trade with Turkey and Europe by improving logistics infrastructure, reducing transportation costs, and significantly cutting travel time between Azerbaijan and Nakhchivan.

- The Zangezur Corridor plays a crucial role in increasing regional connectivity — not only throughout Caucasasia, but also across greater Eurasia, joining Turkish, Russian, Central Asian, Iranian and Armenian territories and linking Europe to Asia.

Zangezur Corridor FAQs

Q1: Where is Zangezur located?

Ans: Zangezur is a historical and geographical region in Eastern Armenia.

Q2: What is the land corridor between Armenia and Azerbaijan?

Ans: The Lachin corridor was a mountain road in Azerbaijan that linked Armenia and Nagorno-Karabakh.

Source: DH

Source: <https://vajiramandravi.com/current-affairs/zangezur-corridor/>

© Vajiram & Ravi. For personal use only.