

Arunachal Pradesh Foundation Day 2025, Date, History

June 2, 2025 • vajiramandravi.com

Arunachal Pradesh Foundation Day also known as Arunachal Pradesh Statehood Day, is an important occasion in the state's history. Celebrated annually on 20th February, this day marks the formation of Arunachal Pradesh as the 24th state of India. The state is referred to as the "Land of the Rising Sun," Arunachal Pradesh is the first region in India to receive sunlight. Located in the northeastern part of the country, it shares international borders with Bhutan, China, and Myanmar, making it a strategically significant state.

Arunachal Pradesh Foundation Day 2025

Arunachal Pradesh Foundation Day 2025 is being celebrated on February 20th with great enthusiasm across the state. This special occasion honors the rich cultural heritage, breathtaking natural beauty, and strategic significance of Arunachal Pradesh in India. The celebration of Arunachal Pradesh Foundation Day 2025 also highlights the state's progress and development over the years.

Arunachal Pradesh Foundation Day 2025 Overview

Arunachal Pradesh Foundation Day, celebrated annually on occasion of the state's transition from a Union Territory to a full-fledged state in 1987. This day stands as a tribute to the struggles and achievements of the people in their journey toward statehood. Below in the table we have shared the Arunachal Pradesh Foundation Day 2025 Overview:

Arunachal Pradesh Foundation Day 2025 Overview
Also known as	Arunachal Pradesh Statehood Day
Date	February 20, 2025
Significance	Marks Arunachal Pradesh’s statehood
Formerly known as	North-East Frontier Agency (NEFA) until 1972
Capital	Itanagar
Districts	26
Population	13,83,727 (2011 Census)
State Bird	Great Pied Hornbill (Buceros Bicornis)
State Animal	Hoolock Gibbon (Hylobatidae Hoolock)
Celebrations	Official events, cultural performances, and public gatherings
Website	arunachalpradesh.gov.in

Arunachal Pradesh Foundation Day 2025 History

Arunachal Pradesh officially obtained the title of state in 1987. The journey toward statehood was shaped by several key events:

- 1826: The Treaty of Yandaboo brought the region under British control after the First Anglo-Burmese War.
- 1838: The North East Frontier Agency (NEFA) was established for administrative purposes.
- 1914: The Shimla Treaty defined the boundary between Tibet and NEFA, with recognition from China, Tibet, and British rulers.
- 1947: After India’s independence, NEFA was placed under the administration of Assam.

- 1972: NEFA was officially renamed Arunachal Pradesh and granted the status of a Union Territory.
- 1987: Arunachal Pradesh became the 24th state of India under the State of Arunachal Pradesh Act, enacted through the 55th Constitutional Amendment.

Arunachal Pradesh Foundation Day 2025 Significance

Arunachal Pradesh Foundation Day is an occasion for the people of the state to reflect on its growth and progress since attaining statehood. It is also an opportunity to honor the sacrifices made by those who played a crucial role in the state's struggle for autonomy.

The celebrations include a variety of cultural performances, parades, speeches, and community gatherings, all of which highlight Arunachal Pradesh's rich traditions, heritage, and achievements. These events not only showcase the state's diversity but also strengthen the sense of unity and pride among its people.

Arunachal Pradesh Foundation Day 2025 Interesting Facts

Arunachal Pradesh is a land of diverse cultures, breathtaking landscapes, and rich historical significance. Below mentioned are the Arunachal Pradesh Foundation Day 2025 Interesting Facts:

1. Largest State in the Northeast: Arunachal Pradesh is the largest northeastern state, covering an area of 83,743 square kilometers.
2. Lowest Population Density: With just 13 persons per square kilometer, Arunachal Pradesh has the thinnest population density in India.
3. Rich Biodiversity: Over 82% of the state is covered with evergreen forests, home to numerous national parks, including Namdapha National Park and Mouling National Park.
4. First Sunrise in India: Dong village in Arunachal Pradesh is the first place in India to receive sunlight, earning it the title "Land of Dawn-lit Mountains."
5. Home to 26 Major Tribes: The state has a vibrant tribal culture, with over 100 sub-tribes, each having its own distinct traditions and customs.
6. Tawang Monastery: It is India's largest monastery and the second-largest in the world, serving as a significant center of Buddhist heritage.
7. Highest Peak: Kangto, standing at 7,090 meters (23,261 feet), is the tallest peak in Arunachal Pradesh.

Source: <https://vajiramandravi.com/current-affairs/arunachal-pradesh-foundation-day/>

© Vajiram & Ravi. For personal use only.