The screenshot shows the Government of India website with a banner for the PM's Mentoring YUVA Scheme 2.0. The banner includes the text "Do you think you are a good writer?", "Join the PM's Mentoring YUVA SCHEME 2.0", and "You could get a platform, mentorship & ₹50,000 per month!". It features an image of Prime Minister Narendra Modi and two young authors. The website header includes the Government of India logo, "myGov", and various links like Home, Suggestion Box, Swachh Toycathon, AI for Youth, AKAM Souvenir, Millet, Shikshak Parv 2022, and Share Cuisine. The footer has a green button labeled "CLICK HERE TO SUBMIT" and a "Background" link.

About:

- It is a Prime Minister's scheme for mentoring young authors, and a programme to train young and budding authors below the age of 30 to promote reading, writing, and book culture in the country, and project India and Indian writings globally.
- The ministry of education (MoE) launched the YUVA 2.0 scheme in view of the significant impact of the first edition of the YUVA.
- The first edition witnessed a large-scale participation from young authors in 22 different Indian languages including English.
- It is in tune with the Prime Minister's vision to encourage the youth to understand and appreciate India's democracy.
- It will help to develop a stream of writers who can write on a spectrum of subjects to promote the Indian heritage, culture, and knowledge system.
- The National Book Trust, India, as the implementing agency under MoE will ensure the phase-wise execution of the scheme under well-defined stages of mentorship.

- The young authors will be trained by eminent authors and mentors from 1st March to 31st August 2023.
