

Youngest IAS Officer in India, Top 10 Youngest IAS Officers in India

July 1, 2026 • vajiramandravi.com

The title of India's youngest IAS officer belongs to Ansar Shaikh. A remarkable individual who achieved this distinction by securing the 361st rank in the UPSC Civil Services Examination at the age of 21 in 2016. Ansar Shaikh's remarkable journey stands as a testament to his unwavering determination and dedication, underlining the idea that age is not a barrier to success in the highly competitive realm of civil services.

Becoming the Youngest IAS Officer, Ansar Shaikh's accomplishment serves as a potent source of inspiration for aspirants, spotlighting the potential for achieving extraordinary feats through meticulous preparation and clear ambition. Here, in this article, we will discuss various important aspects related to Ansar Shaikh, the Youngest IAS Officer in India, in detail.

Who is the Youngest IAS Officer in India?

Ansar Shaikh emerges as India's youngest IAS officer, a distinction he earned by successfully navigating the UPSC Civil Services Examination in 2016, an impressive feat considering he was just 21 at the time. His journey to this achievement is a story of triumph over adversity, rooted in sheer determination and relentless hard work.

Hailing from Jalna, Maharashtra, Ansar Shaikh's unwavering commitment to his studies and focused preparation resulted in him clinching the 361st rank in the UPSC exam, opening the doors to the esteemed Indian Administrative Services. His success resonates as an inspiring tale, encouraging young aspiring IAS officers to chase their dreams and pursue excellence in the sphere of civil services.

Success Story of Ansar Shaikh

Ansar Shaikh's remarkable journey serves as a striking example of unwavering determination and resilience. Emerging from an economically disadvantaged background in Maharashtra, Ansar's path to becoming India's youngest IAS Officer is an inspiring tale of overcoming obstacles and pursuing educational excellence in the face of adversity.

He chose Marathi as the medium for the UPSC Mains examination and Interview and selected Political Science as his optional subject, showcasing a well-planned strategy that played a pivotal role in his achievement. Ansar's story is characterised by his unyielding belief in the power of hard work and dedication. Despite financial challenges, he received crucial support from friends and his coaching institute, underscoring the importance of perseverance and a strong support system.

Top 10 Youngest IAS Officers in India

The prestigious list of the top 10 youngest IAS officers in India serves as a testament to the potential of early dedication and meticulous groundwork in achieving extraordinary laurels. This esteemed list of youngest IAS officers includes:

Year	Name	Age
2016	Ansar Shaikh	21
2013	Roman Saini	22
2007	Swati Meena Naik	22
2011	Amrutesh Aurangabadkar	22
2003	Ankur Garg	22
2001	Smita Sabharwal	22
2006	Gaurav Goyal	22
2015	Tina Dabi	22
2017	S Susree	22
2018	Ashima Jain	22

Youngest Female IAS Officer in India

Tina Dabi and Smita Sabharwal emerge as notable exemplars of the youngest female IAS officers in India, attaining this distinction at the age of 22. Tina Dabi's groundbreaking feat in 2015, coupled with her pivotal role as a District Collector and Magistrate in Jaisalmer, Rajasthan, spotlights the invaluable contributions of young women in administrative roles.

Smita Sabharwal's saga from the 2001 batch further fortifies the notion that gender is no deterrent to achieving excellence in civil services. These accomplished women stand as beacons of inspiration for forthcoming generations of aspiring female civil servants, unequivocally emphasising that determination and dedication can surmount obstacles and pave the path to exceptional achievements.

Source: <https://vajiramandravi.com/upsc-exam/youngest-ias-officer-in-india/>

© Vajiram & Ravi. For personal use only.